

Indian Council of Medical Research National Centre for Disease Informatics & Research Bengaluru

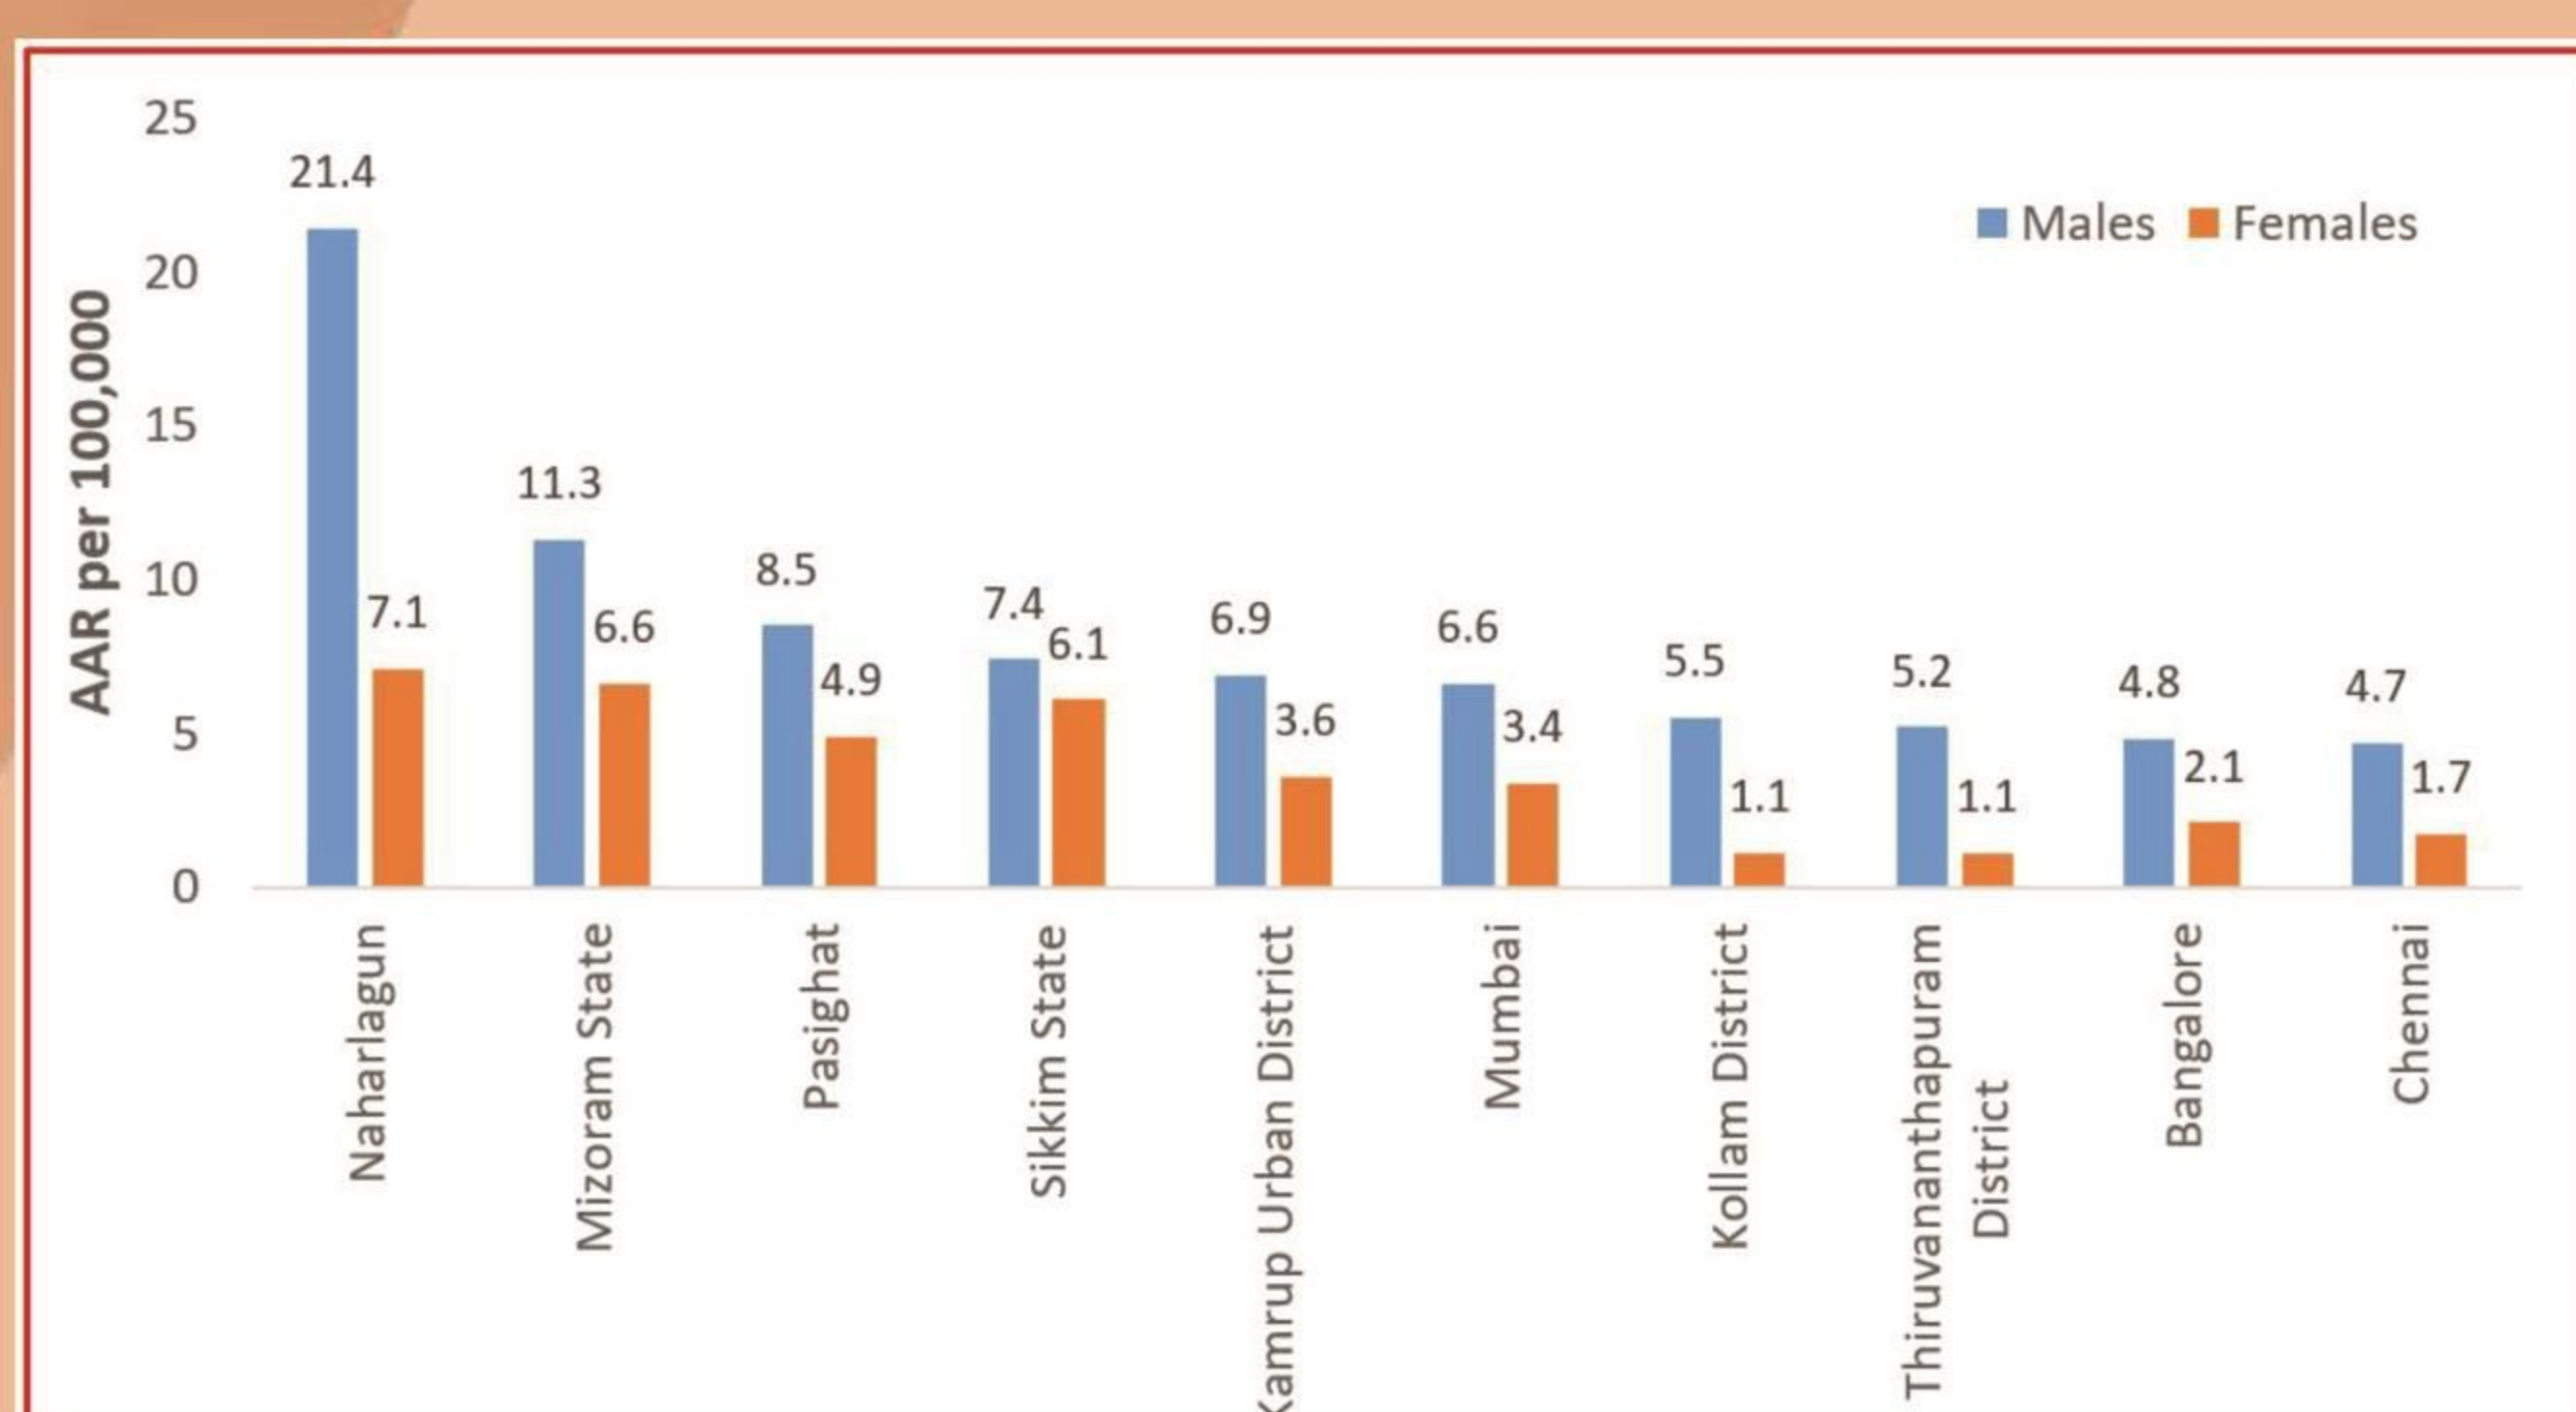

World Liver Day - 19th April 2018

Risk factors -

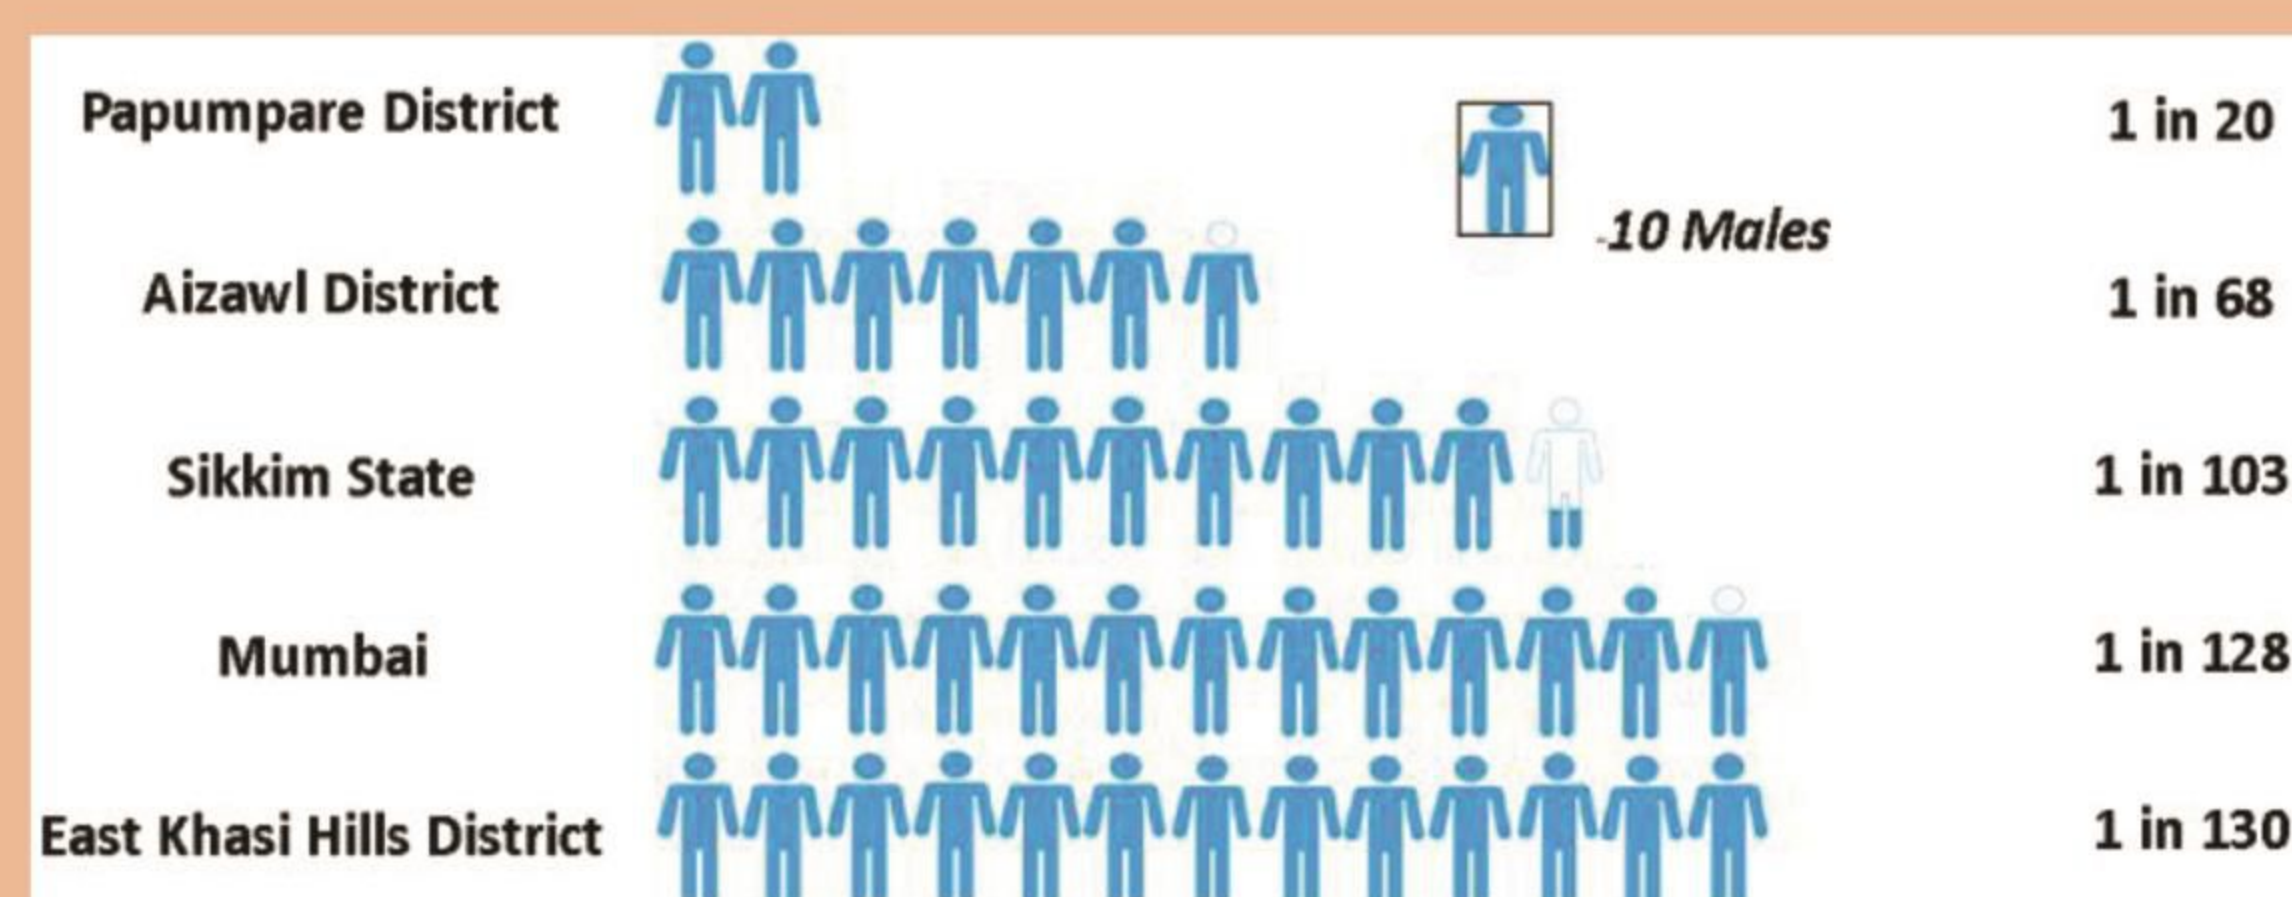

- Chronic infection with HBV (hepatitis B virus) or HCV (hepatitis C virus).
- Chronic alcoholism
- Diabetes.
- Non-alcoholic fatty liver disease.

Liver cancers – Top 10 Incidence Rates among males in comparison with females out of 27 Population Based Cancer Registries (2012-2014)

Note: Less than ten cases have been included in the analysis for Females in Pasighat PBCR

Possibility of one in number of person developing Liver cancer in (0-74) years of age
Top five Population Based Cancer Registries at risk (2012-2014)

Liver cancer – Males (5-year incidence trend) based on Population Based Cancer Registries (1982-2010)

